ONGOING PROJECTS

Coordination Under Concurrent Disruptions in the Dutch Railways. Agent-based modeling calibrated to multi-year disruption and response records, combined with social network analysis; in collaboration with the University of Groningen. Data collection ongoing.

Behavioral Dynamics of Improvised Coordination. Sole-authored. Time-stamped measures of turn-taking, vocal, and movement behavior, extracted from recordings of performances at two improvisational theaters (Netherlands and United States); complemented by qualitative work with performers. Data access secured.
